TORONTO, March 20, 2008 – Points International Ltd., "Points" - (OTCBB: PTSEF, TSX: PTS) - the world's leading loyalty reward solutions provider and owner of the Points.com portal - today announced results for the fourth quarter and full year ended December 31, 2007.

"2007 was a pivotal year for Points as we nearly tripled revenues and achieved our first full year of positive EBITDA," said CEO, Rob MacLean. "More than 10 billion points and miles were transacted over our system during the year and we began to unlock the value of our platform through a material shift to principal-based partnerships with leading loyalty programs around the world. We now have more than 50 partners participating in or deploying 150 of our products and services, an increase of 31 instances over 2006 and a solid indicator of market interest. At the end of 2007, 6 of our partners were principal-based relationships including Delta Airlines, Alaska Airlines, Icelandair, ATA Airlines, Choice Hotels and British Midland Airways. We also launched a number of significant new products and services throughout the year that further integrated Points within the revenue stream of our partners' loyalty programs while expanding exciting programs that drove traffic to the consumer side of our business at www.points.com."

"Our record fourth quarter results demonstrate the material impact of the first full-quarter effect of the shift in our business model to principal-based partnerships. During the quarter we also successfully launched the Global Points Exchange (GPX), the industry's first peer-to-peer mileage trading platform, and just added Delta Airlines to the five launch partners already on GPX demonstrating significant program interest in joining the platform. Looking ahead we plan to continue to close principal-based deals with new and existing partners, drive more traffic across our system and expand the number of partners participating in and the functionality of ¹EBITDA [Earnings (loss) before interest, amortization and foreign exchange] is considered by management to be a useful supplemental measure of performance. However, EBITDA is not a recognized earnings measure under generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

GPX. 2008 is already off to a strong start with the recent additions of JetBlue and Amtrak, two new principal-based partnerships. Given our momentum we expect to post record revenue and EBITDA for the first quarter of 2008. We are reaffirming our full year 2008 guidance that calls for Points to more than double revenues to a record range of US$65 million to US$75 million and to report significant EBITDA growth over 2007 levels," concluded Mr. MacLean.

Full Year 2007 Results

For the twelve months ended December 31, 2007, Points generated total revenue of $31.6 million, a 170% increase versus the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. Adjusted for the weakening of the U.S. dollar vs. 2006, revenues would have been $34.6 million, an additional $3.0 million.

Principal revenue totaled $20.1 million, an increase of 549% compared to the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. Commission revenue totaled $10.8 million, an increase of 29% compared to the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. Interest revenue totaled $717,000, an increase of 222% compared to the twelve months ended December 31, 2006.

Net loss for the twelve months ended December 31, 2007 decreased to $4.4 million, or $0.04 per share, versus a net loss of $8.2 million, or $0.08 per share in 2006.

Points reported positive EBITDA of $384,136 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2007 compared to an EBITDA loss of $3.7 million for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. Adjusted for the weakening of the U.S. dollar vs. 2006, EBITDA would have been $1.5 million, an additional $1.1 million.

As of December 31, 2007, Points' cash, short term investments and amounts held by the Company's payment processors was $35 million, up from $28 million at the end of third quarter of 2007.

"Points' fourth quarter and fiscal year 2007 financial results would have been even stronger if not for the ongoing weakening of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar. Currency effects continue to have a material negative impact on our revenue and EBITDA results. After a thorough evaluation, beginning in 2008 we will begin to report our financial results in U.S. dollars. We believe that this better reflects our business operations, and the 2008 guidance noted in this press release is in U.S. dollars. Additionally, the Company is currently evaluating a potential shift to a larger exchange, most likely NASDAQ. We understand the importance of this move to larger investors and equity analysts," said Anthony Lam, Chief Financial Officer.

Restatement of Previously Issued Financial Statements

"As we reported earlier this month, our long-standing auditors recently merged with Deloitte & Touche LLP and we have been going through an intense review associated with both this change as well as our first year of Sarbanes-Oxley compliance. As part of a thorough review of the Company's prior financial disclosures by management, and an ordinary course review by the US Securities and Exchange Commission, we are restating our full year 2006 financial statements and revising our quarterly 2007 financial results to give effect to these changes. In addition to the summary below, attached with this press release is a detailed disclosure of the impact of the restatement on the previously reported consolidated balance sheet, and income statement amounts for the years ended December 31, 2006, and December 31, 2007, and these restated numbers are used for comparative purposes in this release," concluded Mr. Lam.

Summary of Restatement Adjustments

(a) Restatement of Cash and Cash Equivalents, Security Deposits and Funds Receivable From Payment Processors:

Funds receivable from payment processors are amounts collected on behalf of the Corporation by payment processors. The funds are held for up to three days before being released to the Corporation. As such, these amounts do not meet the definition of cash and cash equivalents as previously reported and have been moved from cash and cash equivalents to funds receivable from payment processors. Security deposits are amounts held on a rolling six month basis by the Corporation's payment processors that process deposit and credit card transactions. Historically, these amounts were recorded as a component of cash and cash equivalents, with disclosure in the notes to the financial statements.

(b) Restatement of Public Company Costs:

In 2000, the Corporation became a public company through a reverse take over of its parent company. Costs of $150,000 incurred to effect the reverse take over were incorrectly capitalized and included within Goodwill. This Goodwill item was subsequently amortized in 2000 and 2001, resulting in a carrying value of $50,000 at the end of 2001. As a result of this restatement, the 2006 opening balance for Goodwill has been reduced by $50,000 and the 2006 opening Deficit increased by the same amount.

The effect on 2006 opening balance is as follows:

(Decrease) in goodwill	($150,000)
Decrease in accumulated amortization of goodwill	$100,000
Increase in deficit	($ 50,000)

(c) Restatement of Transition Services Costs in Goodwill:

Costs of $365,515 and $306,138 incurred in connection with the acquisition of the assets of MilePoint, Inc. in 2004 and 2005, respectively, were incorrectly added to Goodwill as they did not meet the definition of an acquisition cost as defined by CICA Handbook Section 1581 ("Business Combinations"). As these were integration and transition costs in nature, these costs should have been expensed as incurred. The financial statements of 2006 have been restated to correct these errors.

The effect on 2006 opening balance is as follows:

(Decrease) in goodwill	($671,653)
Increase in deficit	($671,653)

(d) Restatement of Upfront Contract Revenue Initiation Fees:

The Corporation has determined that it has contracts with multiple deliverables. As such, the Corporation has applied guidance found in Abstract 142 of the Emerging Issues Committee ("EIC-142") of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) Handbook, "Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables" and determined that, for some contracts, there was only one unit of accounting. In particular, for contracts which contain ongoing service requirements, fees and direct costs for initial set-up have been deferred and recognized evenly over the term of the contract. Previously, the fees and direct costs had incorrectly been recognized as initial set-up occurred. The impact of this correction is included below by year. The cumulative net effects of these errors prior to 2006 are recognized in the restated consolidated financial statements of 2006.

The effect is as follows:

	2003-2005	2006
(Decrease) in revenue as previously recognized	$ (460,305)	$ (550,986)
Decrease in costs as previously recognized	199,499	271,618
Increase (decrease) in net income	$ (260,806)	$ (279,368)
(Increase) in deferred revenue	$ (460,305)	$ (579,634)
Increase in deferred costs	199,499	300,266
Increase in deficit	$ (260,806)	$ (279,368)

The Company also announced today a change in the composition of its Board of Directors ("Board"). Points Investments, Inc. -- a wholly-owned subsidiary of IAC/InterActiveCorp - has elected to replace Jason L. The summarized 2006 restatement adjustments set out above are a result of the specific restatement adjustments as follows:

(a) Restatement of Cash and Cash, Security Deposits and Funds Receivable From Payment Processors:

Funds receivable from payment processors are amounts collected on behalf of the Corporation by payment processors. The funds are held for up to three days before being released to the Corporation. As such, these amounts do not meet the definition of cash and cash equivalents as previously reported and have been moved from cash and cash equivalents to funds receivable from payment processors. Security deposits are amounts held on a rolling six month basis by the Corporation's payment processors that process deposit and credit card transactions. Historically, these amounts were recorded as a component of cash and cash equivalents, with disclosure in the notes to the financial statements.

(b) Restatement of Public Company Costs:

In 2000, the Corporation became a public company through a reverse take over of its parent company. Costs of $150,000 incurred to effect the reverse take over were incorrectly capitalized and included within Goodwill. This Goodwill item was subsequently amortized in 2000 and 2001, resulting in a carrying value of $50,000 at the end of 2001. As a result of this restatement, the 2006 opening balance for Goodwill has been reduced by $50,000 and the 2006 opening Deficit increased by the same amount.

The effect on 2006 opening balance is as follows:

(Decrease) in goodwill	($150,000)
Decrease in accumulated amortization of goodwill	$100,000
Increase in deficit	($ 50,000)

(c) Restatement of Transition Services Costs in Goodwill:

Costs of $365,515 and $306,138 incurred in connection with the acquisition of the assets of MilePoint, Inc. in 2004 and 2005, respectively, were incorrectly added to goodwill as they did not meet the definition of an acquisition cost as defined by CICA Handbook Section 1581 ("Business Combinations"). As these were integration and transition costs in nature, these costs should have been expensed as incurred. The financial statements of 2006 have been restated to correct these errors.

The effect on 2006 opening balance is as follows:

(Decrease) in goodwill	($671,653)
Increase in deficit	($671,653)

(d) Restatement of Upfront Contract Revenue Initiation Fees:

The Corporation has determined that it has contracts with multiple deliverables. As such, the Corporation has applied guidance found in Abstract 142 of the Emerging Issues Committee ("EIC-142") of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) Handbook, "Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables" and determined that, for some contracts, there was only one unit of accounting. In particular, for contracts which contain ongoing service requirements, fees and direct costs for initial set-up have been deferred and recognized evenly over the term of the contract. Previously, the fees and direct costs had incorrectly been recognized as initial set-up occurred. The impact of this correction is included below by year. The cumulative net effects of these errors prior to 2006 are recognized in the restated consolidated financial statements of 2006.

The effect is as follows:

	2003-2005	2006
(Decrease) in revenue as previously recognized	$ (460,305)	$ (550,986)
Decrease in costs as previously recognized	199,499	271,618
Increase (decrease) in net income	$ (260,806)	$ (279,368)
(Increase) in deferred revenue	$ (460,305)	$ (579,634)
Increase in deferred costs	199,499	300,266
Increase in deficit	$ (260,806)	$ (279,368)
